K KUMAR

K. Kumar is a Professor of Entrepreneurship and Chairperson of the N.S. Raghavan Center for Entrepreneurial Learning (NSRCEL) at the Indian Institute of Management Bangalore (IIMB). Kumar had also earlier served as a Visiting Faculty in the area of Corporate Strategy and Policy at IIMB. As Chairperson of NSRCEL, Kumar is responsible for directing its research, teaching and training activities, besides running a business incubation center. Kumar's research interests are in the areas of entrepreneurial strategies and high growth entrepreneurship in emerging economies.

Kumar joined IIMB in 2001 after sixteen years of experience in the industry, having held positions as CEO and President (Trigent Software), Management Consultant (Tata Consultancy Services), Product Manager (Computer Point) and Marketing Officer (Crompton Greaves). Kumar had also successfully co-promoted two entrepreneurial ventures in consumer products and techno-commercial services respectively during his career in the industry.

Kumar holds a Bachelor's degree in Electrical and Electronics Engineering from Madurai University, and a Post Graduate Diploma in Management (MBA) from IIMB. Kumar is also a Fellow of IIMB (equivalent of a Ph.D), with specialization in Corporate Strategy.
