Why Choose Beijing?

Beijing is a city where ancient history and modern dynamism coexist perfectly. As China's capital, it blends the heritage of the Yuan, Ming, and Qing Dynasties with a vibrant international lifestyle.

With a pleasant climate, efficient public transport, and a welcoming atmosphere, Beijing offers the ideal environment for your academic journey. Here, you will gain a global perspective while experiencing the depth of Eastern civilization.

Beijing's Educational Edge

Beijing is the "Pinnacle" of China's higher education system. It hosts the nation's highest concentration of elite universities and research facilities.

Top-Tier Universities

Home to 8 "Project 985" universities and a leading number of "Double First-Class" institutions.

Diverse Ecosystem

From world-renowned comprehensive universities to specialized industry leaders, Beijing offers a perfect fit for every ambition.

Research Powerhouse

Boasting 145 National Key Laboratories ($\approx 1/3$ of China's total) and nearly 500,000 graduate students.

Host: Beijing Municipal Education Commission
Organizer: Beijing International Education Exchange Center
Hanfeng Education
Co-organizer: Athens University of Economics and Business
