AUEB at a Glance

Athens University of Economics and Business \(AUEB\), established in 1920, is the third oldest public Higher Education Institution in Greece and the oldest in the fields of Economic Science and Business Administration. In the course of time, the scientific fields of Informatics and Statistics were also included.

AUEB is widely considered to be the premier Business/Economics University in Greece, and a leading institution in Southeastern Europe. The institutional values of the University - Excellence, Innovation, Extroversion and Societal Contribution - constitute the pillars for its development and its reference points. AUEB's vision is to contribute to successfully meeting the challenges facing science, society, and the economy.

AUEB consists of three (3) Schools: The School of Economic Sciences, the School of Business and the School of Information Sciences and Technology, which comprise a total of eight (8) Departments:

- Department of International & European Economic Studies
- Department of Economics
- Department of Management Science & Technology
- Department of Business Administration
- Department of Accounting and Finance
- Department of Marketing & Communication
- Department of Informatics
- Department of Statistics

AUEB currently educates ~11.000 undergraduate and 1.800 graduate students, with more than 70.000 alumni having graduated in the last century many of which have gone to serve in Government and the private sector in Greece and abroad. The University presently employs more than 230 faculty members, many of which have studied or worked at leading Universities in Europe and the US.

AUEB offers degree-awarding study programs in three (3) cycles of study: Undergraduate, Master's and Doctoral studies. There are 28 Master Programs currently on offer at AUEB, eight (8) of which taught in English. These programs include full-time, part-time, and joint programs.

In terms of facilities, AUEB is housed in nine (9) buildings covering a total area of ~40.000 sq. meters. The campus is located at the centre of Athens, giving the University easy access to various landmarks of interest, such as the Archaeological Museum, the Acropolis and others.

Academic Information

Attendance of courses

Full – time attendance of courses is compulsory. Only 4 absences are permitted for each course during each semester.

Examination periods

Written exams are held after the teaching period.

The exact examination dates for each subject will be defined about a month and a half before the beginning of the examination session.

Resit exams take place only in June and September.

After exams, instructors have four weeks to publish grades. Once students obtained the grades for all exams and their projects that they completed during the mobility, they can request an official transcript of records from the Department they were registered in. Then, a digital copy of the transcript will be sent to the student's home university.
