CALL FOR APPLICATIONS - INTAKE SEPTEMBER 2018

The MBA International of the Athens University of Economics and Business is a world-class program tailored to provide high quality and timely business education in today’s global, dynamically changing, and technology-driven business environment. The Program is accredited by the Association of MBAs (AMBA) since 2005 and is offered exclusively in English. A rich, constantly evolving academic program allows students to customize the curriculum to fit their personal and professional needs and interests, while a number of extracurricular activities help them adopt an international perspective, strengthen their interpersonal and managerial skills, and cultivate their entrepreneurial capabilities. The program attracts students from more than 20 countries and for many years occupies top positions in international rankings. The Program’s mission is to foster a new generation of management professionals and business executives who can respond effectively to current and future challenges and lead their organizations with vision, confidence and respect.

The Program operates in accordance with the Regulation of Postgraduate Programs (approved by the 17th Senate Session of 10/7/2018 standing to 16/7/2018) and Law 4485/2017.

The MBA International offers a 14 months long Full Time Program and a 27 months long Part Time Program.

The application deadline for the Academic year 2018-2019 is Monday 10th of September 2018.

Places are subject both to an upper and lower limit of participants, based on accreditation criteria and the university’s regulations of postgraduate programs.
