QS World University Rankings by Subject

Ranking criteria for the global ranking of Universities by subject field are:

- Academic reputation
- Employer reputation
- Research citations per paper
- H-index: a measure of the productivity and impact of research work

For more information about QS World University Rankings by Subject, click here.